

Colored Candle Installation

Tonight we will install a new slate of officers for the _____ PTA. As I recite a little about each office, the new officers will light a candle to signify their dedication to the job they have been elected to.

_____, you have been elected to serve the _____ PTA as it's President. Your duty as presiding officer places you in a position of high responsibility. There can be no greater charge, no higher challenge than that which now confronts you. We have chosen a White candle to present to you because it denotes purity and your powers as President should have the purist of motives.

_____, as 1st vice president of _____ PTA, the president will turn to you for help in formulating her plans and for moral support. You will also be responsible for recruiting and maintaining the PTA membership. Your candle is green, denoting growth and renewal as the membership chair will renew old members and help the total number of members grow in the _____ PTA.

Orange is a vibrant energy filled color, _____, which is what the 2nd vice president or _____ PTA Volunteer chair must have. Recruiting, instructing, and maintaining a good force of volunteers is a never-ending job.

Yellow stands for integrity, which is what we expect of the Treasurer, _____. We expect that the handling of the monies of the _____ PTA shall be discharged in an accurate and detailed way.

Pink expresses knowledge, and accuracy which is what your president will need from you, _____ as secretary of the _____ PTA. Knowledge of the business which has transpired at previous meetings and knowing what and when to send correspondence.

Each of you has also been given a blue candle. Blue shows your faithfulness to _____ PTA, students, teachers, and parents. It also shows your trust in each other and represents the calm peaceful feelings that come after each endeavor of the PTA has been finished successfully.

I, _____, congratulate you all as duly installed officers of the _____ PTA for 20__-20__.

Congratulations!
