- Pooper scooper

Welcome to the Island of _____ PTA

Our 20__-20__ Islanders have completed many challenges over the last 12 moons.

Including:

- Stapling stacks of papers for the tribe.
- Providing drink and sustenance at various tribal events.
- Attending countless council and tribal board meetings.
- Red Ribbon warfare against drugs.
- Honoring the dedicated and wise ones.
- Raising tribal funds.
- Entertaining the unruly little natives and, far more dangerous, dealing with the even unrulier big natives.

And now it is time to call up the remaining Islanders of the 20__-20__ Board and determine their fate.

(Give each person a candle)

_____ has been the keeper of the tribal funds. It has been her duty to be well balanced and accurate at all times.

_____ was responsible for getting the islanders to pay for the perks and privileges of being a member of the tribe.

_____ has been responsible for recorder of tribal business. It has been her duty to write down all that has happened in her magical tribal book.

_____ has been responsible for law and order in the tribe. It has been her duty to insure all laws are obeyed and to torture those who exceed their allotted minutes with the Evil Eye. She was also instrumental in creating the sacred and holy document called the Bylaws.

_____ has been the keeper of photographs and scraps of paper. Our stay on this island would be washed away if not for her. She too added additional status to her tribal position by educating the island inhabitants of the dangers of the Sun God and how to protect themselves from her wrath.

_____ has been the recorder of finances. She has been the keeper of the budget and issues warrants to only those who are worthy.

_____ has been the tribal communicator. She sends notes to other villages and leaders. She also coordinates the primitive drawings that adorn many cave walls.

_____ oversees that all tribal smoke signals are disbursed to the winds and that the pesky natives receive the dreaded first packet of tribal information.

_____ is responsible for all the programs and challenges of the tribe, providing art and culture to the wild and wooly natives.

_____ is one of the most feared tribal members. Her tribal duties were to extract precious amulets and trinkets from the tribal families in order to keep the island afloat.

_____ tribal position is to keep the natives adequately fed and watered. One of her most amazing feats is the transport of the Learned Wise People from the _____ island to the _____ island, in festively decorated land canoes.

_____ maintained the island's security, by fortifying

the defenses, waging war against drugs, and protecting the little islanders.

_____ tribal duty was to make sure that the tribe followed instructions found in the sacred Bylaws. When she found that this sacred document had not been updated for many, many moons, she stomped her tribal feet until the tribe updated this holy relic.

_____, the Tribe of the Unified School District has ordered this tribal member to remain on the _____ island indefinitely. His job is to work with the Tribal leaders to make sure that they do not run amok.

_____ has been the kind and wise advisor to our tribe.

_____ is the tribal liaison to the Wise and Learned tribe. Her job is to take information from our PTA tribe back to her tribe.

Tribal Chief now speaks:

I have had the great privilege to be able to serve as the Chief of our tribe. I escaped relatively unscathed and was successful at dodging all of the poison darts and lethal arrows aimed at me – all while seeing that all of the tribal leaders kept their villages happy.

Tribal Board of 20__-20__. I would like to thank all of you for keeping the peace and harmony among the island natives. You have completed your tasks and I now present you with a memento your time on the island.

Now, the Nominating Council of the Tribe has met and will reveal your fates.

New Chief and members of your tribal council, you are about to embark on a new journey filled with challenges and rewards. Are you up to the task?

Yes.

Then, by the authority vested in me, I hereby declare you are the new leaders of _____ Tribal Council, otherwise known as the _____ PTA.

To those of you who are brand new to the board this year, we welcome you into the leadership of the tribe. I present to you the Wings Award. For you to be inspired and soar during this next year.

Will you each take your torch and add it to the torches that have preceded you and to those who will follow you. Alone we are but a tiny speck of light, but combined with the lights of our fellow islanders, we can create a light and glow for all to see.

We are the beacon and lanterns that light the way for our children. May we always remember our purpose and mission on this earth – to make a difference in the lives of children, all children.

Oh, and one more thing, _____ (New Chief), I hereby present to you another island relic that should be guarded and passed down from generation to generation – the Sacred Kitty Pooper Scooper – used to shovel the you know what that you will encounter on your journey and reign of the Island.
