Checklist for a Healthy PTA

Each board member is responsible for ensuring that a PTA stays healthy and remains in good standing. If the answer is 'yes' to the following, your PTA will continue to thrive.

Bylaws

- Are bylaws reviewed yearly and updated (sent through channels for approval) every five years?
- Does the PTA understand and follow PTA bylaws, policies and procedures?
- Is a nominating committee elected each year at least 60 days before the PTA election?

Membership Enrollment

- Is an initial membership campaign held toward the beginning of the school year?
- Are continuing opportunities provided for parents and staff to join? (Membership is year-round.)
- Is membership growing each year?
- Is membership per capita sent through channels at least monthly and by deadlines?

Minutes

- Are minutes and an attendance record kept for all meetings?
- Are all action items recorded as motions, including approval of the proposed programs for the year, the budget, all fundraising activities and all expenses?

Annual Reports

- Are volunteer hours being recorded? At meetings? At events?
- Are annual historian reports, with the number of volunteer hours for the year, filed by the deadline?

Leadership

- Do members of the executive board work well together?
- Does the PTA attract qualified candidates and encourage/mentor new leaders?
- Do leaders attend council/district PTA meetings and take advantage of training opportunities?
- Do leaders communicate effectively with members?

Financial Procedures

- Are financial procedures in accordance with recommended PTA policies and procedures?
- Is a member, who is not a check signer, appointed to review the monthly bank reconciliation?
- Are blank checks never signed and two people always count cash?
- Is the budget approved and actual revenues and expenditures compared at least quarterly?
- Is the insurance premium and the workers' comp form/remittance sent in by deadline?
- Are all checks signed by two authorized officers? And are all expenditures properly authorized?
- Is a Year-End Financial Report prepared after the end of the fiscal year to assist in preparing of tax filings?
- Are tax filings – an RRF-1 and some form of a 990 and a 199 – submitted in a timely manner?

Treasurer's Reports

- Are written reports presented/ filed monthly? Are balances, receipts and disbursements recorded in the minutes each month? Are questions welcomed and replied to with sufficient detail to assure transparency?
- Are receipts provided for each check before the expense is approved/ratified and listed?
- Are the reports presented at both executive board and association meetings?

Audits

- Are audits conducted at least twice a year? And whenever there is a change in check signers?
- Are audits prepared and adopted in accordance with the bylaws and PTA financial procedures?
- Is the audit report, the audit checklist and any recommendations/findings submitted to the district PTA?

EIGHT STEPS TO A MOTION

1. Obtain Floor	Member – Rises or raises his/her hand and waits to be recognized before speaking further.
2. Recognition By Chair	Chair – Grants member right to speak by a nod or by saying the member’s name.
3. Make Motion	Member – States the motion, ‘I move ...’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Motions are always in the affirmative. • Chair has the right to request that the motion be in writing, unless the rules indicate otherwise.
4. Motion Seconded	Another member says, ‘I second the motion’ or simply, ‘Second!’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indicates that more than 1 person wishes to consider the subject. • If there is no second, chair says, ‘Motion fails for lack of a second.’ • Motions coming from a committee do not need a second.
5. Chair Restates Motion	Chair – Repeats motion, ‘It has been moved and seconded that...’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Only the chair can formally place a motion before the assembly. • The motion is now pending. Once stated by the chair, it cannot be changed or withdrawn without consent of the members.
6. Debate Discussion	Chair – Asks, ‘Is there discussion?’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maker of the motion has the right to speak first. • Discussion must remain relevant to the pending question. • Chair should endeavor to alternate pro and con speakers. • Maker of the motion may vote against it, but may not speak against it.
7. Putting The Question: The Vote	Chair – When discussion appears to be concluded asks, ‘Are you ready for the question?’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If discussion has been long or amendments made, chair restates motion as it presently stands by saying: ‘The question is on the adoption of the motion that ...’ Chair – Calls for a vote by saying, ‘All those in favor of the motion say Aye’ and pauses for response. “All those opposed say No.’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Always call for the negative vote, no matter how unanimous the affirmative vote may appear.
8. Chair Announces Result	Chair – Says, ‘The ayes have it and the motion is adopted.’ or. ‘The nos have it and the motion is defeated.’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In a counted vote, chair should first announce the count, then the result of the vote. The chair then states the effect of the vote. • No motion is complete until the chair announces result of the vote.
